

About the Silver Knights & the MISL

The Syracuse Silver Knights were officially released to the public on July 14, 2011 by a press release at the Syracuse OnCenter, which will be the team's home stadium. The club's first season started in November of 2011, and will mark the first professional team to play in Syracuse since the Salty Dogs were disbanded before the start of a 2005 season.

The Silver Knights will be coached by Tommy Tanner, a seasoned professional player, and also the President of the Silver Knights. With his experience and the energy and commitment all of our staff, the Silver Knights are set to have a fantastic first season.

With a capacity of 5,300 at the Onondaga County War Memorial Arena, and affordable ticket prices, the club is expecting the fast-paced excitement that the MISL brings will have the Syracuse area eager to support the new franchise. Single tickets are now available through TicketMaster or the OnCenter box office. Fans can also contact the Silver Knights office for tickets or for information about season tickets and other packages.

For more information on the Syracuse Silver Knights, please visit us on the web, or at SyracuseSilverKnights.com, or you can reach the front office at (315) 303-7261.

The Syracuse Silver Knights thank you for your support!

About The Camp

The Knight School Soccer Camp will be run by the Coaches and Players from the Syracuse Silver Knights professional Indoor Soccer team. You'll get to train side-by-side with the players of the newest MISL team.

This opportunity is open to the first 100 kids who register, and they will also receive a Syracuse Silver Knights t-shirt, and each camper will receive a voucher to either the home game versus the Milwaukee Wave on Wednesday, February 22nd or for the home game against the Wichita Wings on Saturday, February 25th.

—Training Topics—

- Cover foot-skills
- Juggling technique and variations
- Physical conditioning activities
- 1 vs. 1 dribbling moves, which lead to individual creativity in attack
- Improved ball-striking with the 4 major surfaces of the foot (passing and finishing)
- Individual and team defending techniques
- Improve first touch and ball collection with various surfaces of the body

Campers will receive an evaluation at the end of the week on technical, tactical, physical, and psychological aspects of the games.

Campers should come prepared each day with:

- Soccer ball
- Soccer bag to keep your things together
- Indoor Turf Shoes
- Shin guards
- Plastic water bottles

Soccer Camp 9am—12noon

Soccer Training

Monday, February 20th
Tuesday, February 21st
Wednesday, February 22nd
and
Thursday, February 23rd

Field Players

This camp is tailored to both the inexperienced and advanced player. Our younger campers will receive training focused on technique and basic tactics giving them the skills necessary for success. Advanced players will be challenged to perform skills at speed and encouraged to develop their ability to read the game and play at a higher level.

Goalkeepers

Goalkeepers are an essential part to any soccer team. Keepers need the proper training to become the best at their position. Training will be available for both the beginner and experienced keepers. Technique will be a high priority for the beginner keepers and as for the experienced keepers, technique along with tactics will be priority.

When you sign up for the Knight School camp, you'll receive a Syracuse Silver Knights t-shirt, and they will receive a voucher to the home game versus the Milwaukee Wave on Wednesday, February 22nd, and the Wichita Wings on Saturday, February 25th.

Stop by Quaker Steak and Lube after camp for great lunch specials!

Please, sign up today, camp is limited to the first 100 registrants!
